PREFACE

Art is expression

God created human being to express. Mutual connectedness created love between human beings. This love is the aim of all Indian Folk Art

Human beings either feel upward or downward. When they feel upward, this is spirit. It makes spirituality. In India people are spiritual.

Sun rays and soil

Culture is much influenced by sunrays and soil. It affects work pattern, eating styles, colour preferences etc which individually affects art forms.

INFLUENCES

India is surrounded by different cultures and lies on major historical trade routes. In the east, it has Chinese and Tibetan cultural influence.

In the West, with changed in angles of sun shades, they have preferences for various pure and dark colors and have Persian influence.

In the north, we have influence from Muslim culture. In the South, we have all influences from travellers. Strength is dominant characteristic in South Indian Art.

STYLES

Wherever people lived in groups, folk art emerged. Their good principles created love and art styles survived for longer time. In India fellow feeling is the base of all art creation. Isolation for modernisation and trade routes helped them to preserve their art emotions. Variety in art styles emerged principally due to local cultural beliefs, folk tales, soil and climates. Love for God or spirituality is the

PHILOSOPHY

Art is arrangement.

Art is love.

Art uplifts.

Art liberates.

Creation is love.

God is love.

Expression is love.

Human being is love.

Art comes from purity and love.

Art is arrangement-

Every art object has a principal element and its extensions. How we arrange them makes an art, the better and finer we arrange, the better and finer the art is. This comes with experience.

Art is love

God has given us heart. We feel. Feeling needs love. Similarly artist is given heart. He feels and creates Art. Cycle completes. Purpose of love is to elevate our soul. To free it from mind. Art is love.

Art uplifts

Our mind has weight of worries and darkneses. Art has relation to our consciousness. When we see a good piece of art, our minds gets arranged. This inner arrangement brings in upliftment of consciousness. The best Kasauti of a valuable art is how much does it elevate the soul. And elevation of soul is joy. So best arts creates joy (anand)

Art Liberates :

Art is love, when we practice art or realizes art, we get merged into love. Our existence merges with our ability to see. We get liberation. We become free from mental bonds. Mind becomes heart and one rejoices.

Creation is love

The literal meaning of "Parmatama" is one 'who does for others'. God created this creation out of love or CREATED ART.

God is love:

God is pure. Purity is love. He created this universe out of love. This love is expressed in arranged patterns of natural elements.

Expression is love:

Art is expression. When expressed in pure forms, this expression becomes love.

Human being is love:

Human being the finest creation with intellect is the purest form of God's creation. Because he has heart, human being is love.
